

Commissions

Corps

The commissions are temporary working groups set up to study specific problems or issues outside the scope of an individual section. The Bureau appoints commission members based on recommendations from the Groups.

© - copyright CESE - Avril 2024