Groups

Each Group has at least three members. It provides a forum for representatives to present a united front based on similar ideas and interests, along with a joint (and on occasion individual) viewpoint conveyed in the work of the Council.

Groups seek to have a representative in each working group, numbers allowing, or at least in working groups whose field of expertise is closest to their main concerns.

Discover groups

© - copyright CESE - Novembre 2026