Members

ESEC members

The ESEC brings together 175 members, women and men with practical experience in their respective fields, appointed by intermediary bodies: associations, trade unions, employers' organisations...

The ESEC member's are divided into 19 representative groups. Members are appointed by their organizations for a five-year term. Members cannot serve more than two consecutive terms. The members meet four times a month in plenary assembly

The 175 members are divided into 4 main divisions:

- Employees
- Companies, farmers, craftsmen, liberal professions, mutual societies, cooperatives and consular chambers
- Social and territorial cohesion and community life
- Protection of nature and the environment.

The ESEC is the most equal assembly : 46% of women and 54% of man.

List of Economic, Social and Environmental Council members

© - copyright CESE - Octobre 2026